

ST.MONTFORT SCHOOL, PATEL NAGAR, BHOPAL

THANKS GIVING DAY CELEBRATED BY THE MONFORTIAN

22ND of Dec 2017 –Thanks giving day for the Monfortians was a special and wonderful day – A day of peace and tranquility and introspection remembering and thanking the past days which were either bustling with joy or turbulent with anxiety but have reached the end of the year safe and sound, healthy and happy.

The teachers taking classes in IX and X presented a heart touching, soulful prayer and morning assembly presentation by elaborating what is thank giving, Why should we thank God, through asking, the need to thank God, was emphasized as God dwells in 2 places, heaven above and a thankful heart.

A special thanking prayer to God for the bounties of Nature, Founder of our Society, Management, Administration, Provincial Superior, Benefactors, well wishers, Sisters, Teaching and Non Teaching staff, Parents, Family, Students the sufferers and pained people.

The assembly concluded with a melodious song thanking God, for his blessings. The students teachers and other staff members continued to show their gratitude by thanking each other the entire day.