

SEMINAR FOR THE INNOCENT HEARTS.

St. Montfort Senior Secondary School conducted a seminar for the students of III – V on “Creating awareness on Good touch and bad touch” on 21st July 2018 in the school auditorium.

The seminar was conducted by Mrs. Shradha Balwani the school counsellor. Children were shown videos and also explained to understand the difference between bad touch and good touch and how to handle when they are in such situations.

The seminar was held under the able guidance of our Principal Rev. Brother Monachanand primary Co-ordinator Rev. Sr. Nikita. The children were made aware of the different situations they may face and how to tackle the situations when they experience bad touch. The seminar was interesting and activity based so that the children are at ease and understand the grave and severe situation playfully.
