

ST. MONTFORT SCHOOL, BHOPAL THANKS GIVING DAY CELEBRATION

On December 30th ,Friday 2023 the students of Class 12 at St. Montfort Sr. Secondary School Bhopal came together for a Thanksgiving Day celebration, expressing deep gratitude to the school fraternity. The event featured a diverse range of programs, including a special prayer, a melodious song, a captivating band presentation, students sharing their unique experiences, insightful quotations reflecting on school life, and an engaging dance performance.

A special note of appreciation was extended to the Principal Rev Br .Monachan ,Vice Principal Br. Gregory Baa ,Senior Coordinator Mrs. Jyoti Vibin Nair and their class teachers for their unwavering support. Principal Rev Bro Monachan took the stage and addressed the gathering, emphasizing the pivotal role of school days as stepping stones to profound learning. He shared the sentiment that change is inherently positive. As the event concluded he also extended warm wishes for a joyful New Year to everyone present, encapsulating a celebration that underscored gratitude, camaraderie, and a sense of shared purpose among the students and staff.

By Samta Chawla