“There passion burns to give warmth of knowledge to the cold minds of students.”

On the 130th birth anniversary of Dr. SarvapaliRadha Krishnan, St. Montfort Senior Secondary School marked the occasion of Teacher's day.

The show began by seeking blessing from God by lighting of the lamp and prayer song. What followed was anastonishing and eventful wave of performances beginning from a solo music event leading to a super energetic dance by students of 6 – 8th.

All good occasions must be marked with having something sweet so,revving our rituals our Vice - Principal along the cabinet members cut the cake to good times. Then to mesmerize the atmosphere with their soulful songs came our school band.

The grand finale left everyone awe struck and besides the beats of music the only thing that could be heard was applauses and sweet sound of happiness.

The programme ended with great rejoicement of the people who are considered as the pillars of the nation.
