

VAN MAHOTSAV WEEK –TREE PLANTATION DRIVE

Famous activist Amrita Devi Bishoi, once said, “If a tree is saved even at the cost of one’s head it’s worth it” and today on 2nd July 2018 it was being echoed in St. Montfort School Bhopal premises.

Care for environment is being very close to the hearts of every Montfortian’s, Principal Rev. Brother Monachan, Vice Principal Rev. Brother John Minj, Headmistress Sister Kripa and all the co-ordinators along with scout and guide team planted saplings as a gesture of affection towards environment during the assembly, under the able guidance of Eco-club, was also salutation to the feelings of Amrita Devi.

A beautiful poem was recited by a student on the significance of the day.

Overall an apt assembly was held which depicted the true essence of the day. Principal Rev. Bro Monachan also congratulated the Eco-Club and the Scout and Guide team for celebrating Van Mahotsav in a subtle yet grand way. He also asked all the students to keep planting trees always and also to take care of it and keep loving the trees.
